

History of CFF (Caring for the Future Foundation) Malaysia : Beginning, present and future

Ver. 4.0

Nov. 2013

CFFM Board of trustee/
edit. by T.Yoshino

2007

2008

2009

2010

2011

2012

Location & Facilities

Land with nothing but nature

Bamboo house for meeting & lodge

Rumah Kanak Kanak

1st, 2nd & 3rd houses were built in Nov. 2011 and used for children and staff before constructing the main house.

Master plan

Living human relations

Mr. Abe came to Malaysia and found his mission.

met Ms. Loris and found his vision(2006).

Mr. Abe and Kaori got married with the same mission bridge

trails

Constructions by youths and volunteers

fish pond

Open ceremony of orphanage, Nov. 2011

Children entered, Dec. 2011

Boys & girls, believe future and grow strongly for peace and love in God.

Infrastructure building & Sustainable design for "Orphanage" running

Infrastructures(bridge, trails, water supply, etc)

What is sustainable design?
Designing the sustainable future with neighbors.

1. Eco-system (environment)
2. Social system (economy)
3. Human system (welfare)

self-support independent Integration → future-oriented

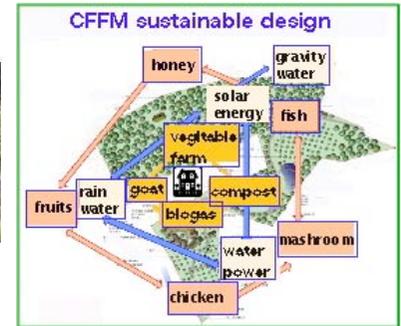

Compost

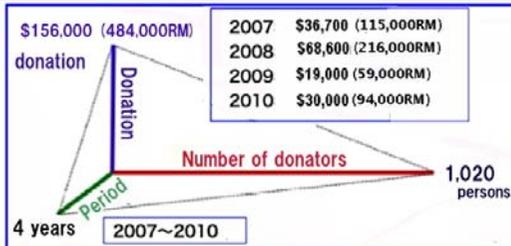

Vegetable farm & ponds

Self-sufficient running of orphanage by growing fruits, vegetables, fishes strides forward.

Supporters & Donation

Thanks for big donation for land purchase and infrastructures.

135,000RM by Charity concert in Malaysia.

92,000RM (2011) & 110,000RM (2012) by fundraising campaign in Japan.

110,000RM (2012) by fundraising campaign in Japan.

The CFFM Cheering Party "Thank you project"

A VAN (Bus) donated, Jul. 2012

Charity concert 2013: income 80,000RM. In addition, 20,000RM donated from Australian family & 40,000RM from a Japanese organization.

CFFM began in 2004 when Mr. Mitsuhiro Abe found God calling in the street children in Kota Kinabalu.

He decided to build "House for Kids" in Papar.

250 persons offered the donation for land purchase and infrastructures, realizing the vision and plan.

Youths and volunteers make bridge, trails, meeting place in the site.

The CFFM Cheering Party initiated "Thank-you project" aiming to collect $50,600(160,000RM) from 390 persons in two years, and donated 3rd kid-house(2011) and a VAN(2012).

Home page <http://cffmalaysia.com/>